

EN UN VERGEL ESPACIOSO

THE ARCHDUKE'S CONSORT

Fiona Stuart-Wilson (voice)

Guillermo Femenías (renaissance guitar, lute)

Jaume Compte (renaissance guitar, percussion)

“En un vergel espacioso”, or ‘in a spacious garden’ in English, is a phrase taken from a poem by the Marqués de Santillana, regarded as one of the most important Spanish writers of the XVth century. In the spacious garden of this concert programme are displayed the beautiful musical flowers of the Renaissance period through dances and songs from Spain, Italy and France.

The Archduke's Consort is an early music ensemble founded in 2014 and based in Mallorca, Spain. It specialises in performing renaissance and baroque music from the 15th to the early 18th centuries. Their repertoire encompasses the early music heritage of Spain from the medieval to the baroque periods, and extends to the music of other European countries ranging from Italian frottole to Elizabethan lute song, from folk dances to German baroque sonatas. The Archduke's Consort has a reputation for inventive programming and delivers an engaging fusion of musical styles, blending flair and passion with refinement and subtlety.
